ENROLL NOW TO TAKE FULL ADVANTAGE
OF YOUR RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN BENEFITS

YOUR GUIDE TO GETTING STARTED

Save for retirement through VineBrook Homes, LLC 401(k) Plan easily, regularly, and automatically.

With all the responsibilities and financial priorities you might be juggling – mortgage payments, parenthood, saving or paying for college, caring for parents, and more – it can be easy to overlook the need to save for retirement. But it's important to consider setting aside money for retirement as early and regularly as you can, because the quality of your retirement years could very well depend on how much you have been able to save.

As you consider enrolling in VineBrook Homes, LLC 401(k) Plan and selecting investment options for your account, please review this Enrollment Guide. It contains valuable information that may help you better understand the basics of investing, as well as help you make the most of your company's retirement savings plan.

PARTICIPATING IN YOUR plan

There are many benefits to participating in the VineBrook Homes, LLC 401(k) Plan. One of the primary benefits is that you will receive help reaching your financial goals for retirement. By reviewing the important information in this guide and visiting Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.401k.com, you can take advantage of what your company and Fidelity have to offer.

When am I eligible for the Plan?

You are eligible to participate in the Plan if:

- you complete 1 month of service
- you are at least 21 years old
- and you are not:
 - covered by a collective bargaining agreement (unless the agreement specifically provides for you to be covered by the plan)
 - a nonresident alien and do not receive any U.S. earned income

The Plan does not cover employees who are residents of Puerto Rico.

How do I enroll?

To enroll, log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.401k.com. You can also set up your beneficiary information by going to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.401k.com or calling a Fidelity Representative at 1-800-835-5097 to request a Designation of Beneficiary Form to fill out and return to Fidelity.

Your plan has an automatic enrollment feature. If the automatic enrollment feature applies to you and you do not take action, you will be automatically enrolled at 5%. If the automatic enrollment feature applies to you, you will receive a separate notification indicating when deferrals will begin to be made on your behalf. If you do not select an investment, your Plan Sponsor has directed Fidelity to place your contributions in the Fidelity Investments target date fund that most closely aligns with your projected retirement date based upon your birth year.

If you would prefer to elect not to participate at this time or to specifically elect a contribution rate and/or investment options, please contact Fidelity by logging onto www.401k.com or call 1-800-835-5097.

When is my enrollment effective?

Once you satisfy these requirements, you will become eligible to participate in the Plan immediately.

How much can I contribute?

Through automatic payroll deduction, you may contribute between 1% and 100% of your eligible pay on a pretax and/or Roth basis, up to the annual IRS dollar limit (2024 = $23,000). You may change your deferral percentage as applicable. Any changes made would take effect at the beginning of each payroll period.

In addition, you can automatically increase your retirement savings plan contributions each year through the Annual Increase Program. To sign up, access the Contributions section within NetBenefits®, or call the plan's toll-free number.

If you are age 50 or over by the end of the taxable year and have reached the annual IRS limit or Plan's maximum contribution limit for the year, you may make additional salary deferral contributions to the Plan up to the IRS Catch-Up Contribution Limit (2024= $7,500).

Unlike your traditional, pretax 401(k) deferrals, the Roth 401(k) feature allows you to contribute after-tax dollars, but then withdraw tax-free dollars from your account when you retire, provided the distribution is "qualified." A qualified distribution is one that is taken after the five taxable year period beginning January 1 of the year for which your first designated Roth contribution to the plan is made (or to a previous plan, if that amount was subsequently rolled over to the distributing plan) AND you turn age 59 ½, become disabled, or die. If you are eligible to make traditional pretax 401(k) contributions, you can also make Roth 401(k) after-tax contributions. Your total contributions to the plan (both Roth 401(k) after-tax deferrals and traditional pretax contributions) cannot exceed IRS limits, or your plan's limit, if less.

Can I move money from another retirement plan into this one?

You may be permitted to roll over eligible contributions into this Plan from a previous employer's retirement plan. For other eligible account types, please see your Summary Plan Description. Once you have confirmed that your Employer will accept your rollover contribution, you can get started in the "Rollovers" section online. Be sure to consider all your available options and the applicable fees and features of each before moving your retirement assets.

Does the Company contribute to my account?

Your employer will make Safe Harbor matching contributions to your account based on your contributions. The amount will equal:

- 100% of the first 5% of your eligible compensation contributed to the Plan

To be eligible for Safe Harbor matching contributions you are required to:

- make employee pretax deferral contributions or Roth 401(k) after-tax deferral contributions. The plan will match on the combined total of these contributions up to the matching limit.

In some Plan Years, your Employer may choose to make an additional discretionary matching contribution to your account. The amount would be determined at Plan Year end by a Board of Directors' Resolution.

To be eligible for additional discretionary matching contributions you are required to:

- make employee pretax deferral contributions or Roth 401(k) after-tax deferral contributions. The plan will match on the combined total of these contributions up to the matching limit.

For purposes of determining your matching contributions under the Plan, your deferral contributions will include Age 50 and over Catch-Up Contributions described above.

Your Employer may designate all or a portion of any matching contributions for a Plan Year as "qualified matching contributions" and allocate them to employees to help the Plan pass one or more annually required Internal Revenue Code nondiscrimination test(s). Any such contributions will be allocated to those non-highly compensated Participants eligible to receive the Employer matching contributions described above who made deferral contributions during the Plan Year. Participants are 100% vested in these contributions and may not request a hardship withdrawal of these contributions.

The Employer may make a discretionary profit sharing contribution to only those participants who are eligible under the terms of the plan. Please refer to your employer or Summary Plan Description for more detailed information.

When am I vested?

The term "vesting" refers to the portion of your account balance that you are entitled to under the plan's rules.

You are always 100% vested in your:

- employee pretax account
- rollover account
- Roth 401(k) after-tax deferral account
- Safe Harbor matching contributions
- and any earnings thereon.

Employer profit sharing contributions, matching contributions and earnings will be vested in accordance with the following schedule:

Years of Service for Vesting	Percentage
less than 1	0
1	33
2	66
3	100

Can I take a loan from my account?

Although your plan account is intended for your retirement, you may take a loan from your account.

Can I make withdrawals from my account?

Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted in the event of termination of employment, retirement, disability, as a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD), or death. You may also be eligible for a withdrawal in the case of a severe financial hardship as defined by your Plan.

How do I access my account?

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories and not on the actual investment options and their holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of the date indicated. There may be a number of funds in each category and each may have a significantly different risk profile as compared to other funds within that category as well as compared to funds in other categories on the spectrum. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decisions. The spectrum does not represent actual or implied performance.

ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT options:

Target Date funds offer a blend of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments within a single fund. They are designed for investors who don't want to go through the process of picking several funds from the three asset classes but who still want to diversify among stocks, bonds, and short-term investments.

Target date investments are generally designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each investment's name. The investments are managed to gradually become more conservative over time. The investment risks of each target date investment change over time as its asset allocation changes. They are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to risk associated with investing in high yield, small cap and foreign securities. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after their target dates.

DESCRIPTIONS OF INVESTMENT options

MONEY MARKET FUNDS

Fidelity® Government
Money Market Fund
0458

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.42 as of 06/29/2024

Objective:

Seeks as high a level of current income as is consistent with preservation of capital and liquidity.

Strategy:

The Adviser normally invests at least 99.5% of the fund's total assets in cash, U.S. Government securities and/or repurchase agreements that are collateralized fully (i.e., collateralized by cash or government securities). Certain issuers of U.S. Government securities are sponsored or chartered by Congress but their securities are neither issued nor guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury. Investing in compliance with industry-standard regulatory requirements for money market funds for the quality, maturity, liquidity and diversification of investments. The Adviser stresses maintaining a stable $1.00 share price, liquidity, and income. In addition the Adviser normally invests at least 80% of the fund's assets in U.S. Government securities and repurchase agreements for those securities.

Risk:

You could lose money by investing in the fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not a bank account and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Fidelity Investments and its affiliates, the fund's sponsor, are not required to reimburse money market funds for losses, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time, including during periods of market stress. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a money market security to decrease. A decline in the credit quality of an issuer or a provider of credit support or a maturity-shortening structure for a security can cause the price of a money market security to decrease.

Fidelity's government and U.S. Treasury money market funds will not impose a fee upon the sale of your shares.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who has a low tolerance for investment risk and who wishes to keep the value of his or her investment relatively stable.
- Someone who is seeking to complement his or her bond and stock fund holdings in order to reach a particular asset allocation.

BOND FUNDS

BlackRock Strategic Income Opportunities
Portfolio Class K
OIXB

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.66 as of 04/29/2024

Objective:

The investment seeks total return as is consistent with preservation of capital.

Strategy:

The fund will invest in a combination of fixed-income securities, including, but not limited to: high yield securities, international securities, emerging markets debt and mortgages. It may invest significantly in non-investment grade bonds (high yield or junk bonds). It may invest up to 15% of its net assets in collateralized debt obligations, of which 10% (as a percentage of the fund's net assets) may be in collateralized loan obligations.

Risk:

Lower-quality debt securities that involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. Foreign securities are subject to interest-rate, currency-exchange-rate, economic, and political risks, all of which may be magnified in emerging markets. In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. May not be suitable for all investors. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Sophisticated investors interested in a bond fund that provides the potential for both current income and share-price appreciation, and who understand the risks associated with investing in various sectors, including high-yield and foreign debt, as well as the use of fixed income derivatives and the leverage inherent in such investment instruments.
- Sophisticated investors who are seeking to complement his or her core bond holdings with a fund that pursues strategies divergent in one or more ways from conventional practice in the broader bond-fund universe, and who can tolerate the greater risks associated with foreign investments.

The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 03/28/2016. These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, with an inception date of 02/05/2008, adjusted to reflect the fees and expenses of this share class (when this share class's fees and expenses are higher.) Please refer to a fund's prospectus for information regarding fees and expenses. These adjusted historical returns are not actual returns. Calculation methodologies utilized by Morningstar may differ from those applied by other entities, including the fund itself.

Short-term Redemption Fee Notes:

None

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.81 as of 03/13/2024

Objective:

The investment seeks to provide a high level of current income.

Strategy:

Under normal circumstances, the fund invests at least 80% of its total assets in income producing floating rate loans and other floating rate debt securities. It invests primarily in senior floating rate loans of domestic and foreign borrowers ("Senior Loans"). Loans usually are of below investment grade quality and have below investment grade credit ratings, which ratings are associated with securities having high risk, speculative characteristics (sometimes referred to as "junk").

Risk:

Floating-rate loans generally are subject to restrictions on resale and they sometimes trade infrequently in the secondary market, and as a result may be more difficult to value, buy, or sell. A floating-rate loan might not be fully collateralized, which may cause the floating-rate loan to decline significantly in value. The fund may invest in lower-quality debt securities that involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone interested in a fixed-income fund that generally allows for more adjustments to income based on changing interest rates than traditional bond funds generally do.
- Someone who is seeking to complement his or her core bond holdings with a bond investment that seeks higher returns from riskier bonds, and who can tolerate higher risk.

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.3 as of 10/30/2023

Objective:

Seeks a high level of current income.

Strategy:

Normally investing at least 80% of assets in debt securities of all types and repurchase agreements for those securities. Using the Bloomberg U.S. Universal Bond Index as a guide in allocating assets across the investment grade, high yield, and emerging market asset classes. Investing up to 20% of assets in lower quality debt. Managing the fund to have similar overall interest rate risk to the index. Investing in domestic and foreign issuers. Allocating assets across different asset classes, market sectors, and maturities. Analyzing the credit quality of the issuer, the issuer's potential for success, the credit, currency, and economic risks of the security and its issuer, security-specific features, current and potential future valuation, and trading opportunities to select investments. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default), options, and futures contracts and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Risk:

In general, the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk, liquidity risk, call risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.025 as of 10/30/2023

Objective:

Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the aggregate price and interest performance of the debt securities in the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index.

Strategy:

Normally investing at least 80% of the fund's assets in bonds included in the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index. Using statistical sampling techniques based on duration, maturity, interest rate sensitivity, security structure, and credit quality to attempt to replicate the returns of the Index using a smaller number of securities. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default) and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

The fund can invest in securities that may have a leveraging effect (such as derivatives and forward-settling securities) which may increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

Footnotes:

This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index for U.S. dollar denominated investment-grade fixed-rate debt issues, including government, corporate, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities with maturities of at least one year.

Duration is a measure of a security's price sensitivity to changes in interest rates. Duration differs from maturity in that it considers a security's interest payments in addition to the amount of time until the security reaches maturity, and also takes into account certain maturity shortening features (e.g., demand features, interest rate resets, and call options) when applicable. Securities with longer durations generally tend to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than securities with shorter durations. A fund with a longer average duration generally can be expected to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than a fund with a shorter average duration.

DOMESTIC EQUITY FUNDS

American Funds

American Mutual Fund®

Class R-6

OUBH

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.27 as of 01/01/2024

Objective:

The investment seeks current income, growth of capital and conservation of principal.

Strategy:

The fund invests primarily in common stocks of companies that are likely to participate in the growth of the American economy and whose dividends appear to be sustainable. It invests primarily in securities of issuers domiciled in the United States and Canada. The fund may also invest in bonds and other debt securities, including those issued by the U.S. government and by federal agencies and instrumentalities.

Risk:

Value stocks can perform differently than other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Short-term Redemption Fee: 0.00

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is comfortable with the volatility of large-cap stocks and value-style investments.

Footnotes:

This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 05/01/2009. These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, with an inception date of 02/21/1950, adjusted to reflect the fees and expenses of this share class (when this share class's fees and expenses are higher.) Carillon Eagle Mid Cap
Growth Fund Class R6
OSF5

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.64 as of 04/26/2024

Objective:

The investment seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Strategy:

The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets (plus the amount of any borrowings for investment purposes) in the equity securities of mid-capitalization companies. The fund will invest primarily in the equity securities of companies that the portfolio managers believe have the potential for above-average earnings or sales growth, reasonable valuations and acceptable debt levels.

Risk:

Growth stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and can be more volatile than other types of stocks. The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

SPECIALTY FUNDS

Fidelity® Real Estate
Investment Portfolio
0303

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.67 as of 03/01/2024

Objective:

Seeks above-average income and long-term capital growth, consistent with reasonable investment risk. The fund seeks to provide a yield that exceeds the composite yield of the S&P 500 Index.

Strategy:

Normally investing at least 80% of assets in securities of companies principally engaged in the real estate industry and other real estate related investments. Normally investing primarily in common stocks.

Risk:

Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks. Changes in real estate values or economic downturns can have a significant negative effect on issuers in the real estate industry. The value of securities of issuers in the real estate industry can be affected by changes in real estate values and rental income, property taxes, interest rates, tax and regulatory requirements, and the management skill and creditworthiness of the issuer. The fund may have additional volatility because it can invest a significant portion of assets in securities of a small number of individual issuers.

Short-term Redemption Fee:

Who may want to invest:

TARGET DATE FUNDS

Fidelity Freedom®
Index 2010 Fund
Investor Class
2226

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.12 as of 05/30/2024

Objective:

Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Strategy:

Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing primarily in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), each of which (excluding any money market fund) seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index. Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Index Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund may merge with the Freedom Index Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation.

Risk:

The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Index Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked, and foreign securities. The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking an investment option that gradually becomes more conservative over time and who is willing to accept the volatility of the markets.
- Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option or who does not feel comfortable making asset allocation choices over time.

Footnotes:

This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

Short-term Redemption Fee Notes:

None

Gross Expense Ratio: 0.12 as of 05/30/2024

Objective:

Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Strategy:

Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing primarily in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), each of which (excluding any money market fund) seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index. Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Index Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund may merge with the Freedom Index Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation.

Risk:

The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Index Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked, and foreign securities. The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), some of which are actively managed and others of which are passively managed, meaning they seek to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index (approximately 11% in domestic U.S. equity funds, 8% in international equity funds, 43% in U.S. investment grade bond funds, 5% in international bond funds, 3% in long-term treasury bond funds, 20% in inflation-protected bond funds, and 10% in short-term funds). The Adviser may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation.

Risk:

The fund is subject to risks resulting from the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. The fund is subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments. Fixed income investments entail issuer default and credit risk, inflation risk, and interest rate risk (as interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall and vice versa). This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. Plan Name (i.e., "the Plan"): VineBrook Homes, LLC 401(k) Plan

Plan#: 86909

Incoming Rollover Instructions

"Rolling over" money into the Plan is a three-step process. Please follow these instructions to ensure that this process is completed in a timely and accurate manner. Please Note: Failure to follow these instructions may result in a delay in the processing of your request and may jeopardize your ability to roll over your distribution.

Step 1. Request your distribution

Request a direct rollover distribution from your previous eligible retirement plan. See the Incoming Rollover Contribution Application for a list of the types of plans or accounts from which rollovers may be made to your employer's plan. Please keep in mind that you can only rollover your Roth 401(k) or After-tax contributions into the plan if your plan allows for these types of rollovers. Check with your Benefits Department to see if these types of rollovers are allowed.

- The check should be made payable to Fidelity Investments Institutional Operations Company LLC (or FIIOC), for the benefit of (YOUR NAME). The check must be from the distributing trustee or custodian. (Personal checks are not acceptable.) Note: This type of distribution avoids automatic income tax withholding. Also, it avoids the possible 10% early withdrawal penalty if you are under the age of 59 1/2.

Fidelity does not accept wire transfers of funds. You must request a CHECK from your previous plan or IRA. The check should be mailed directly to you. Once you have received the check, please follow the directions in Step 2.

Step 2. Initiate your rollover request

Please log on to www.401k.com to initiate your rollover request or complete the Incoming Rollover Contribution Application. Please be sure to complete all items, and sign the form if indicated.

Please Note: This rollover contribution will be invested based on the investment elections you have on file for rollover contributions to the Plan. If you have not previously made investment elections for your rollover contribution please log on to NetBenefits® at www.401k.com to do so. Otherwise, it will be invested based on your elections for elective deferral contributions. If you have not made investment elections for either rollover or deferral contributions, this amount will be invested in the Plan-designated default investment option. If you wish to make investment elections for your rollover contribution, please do so by contacting Fidelity Investments prior to submitting this form.

If you are not sure of the plan type that you are rolling out of, please contact your previous Plan Sponsor or IRA custodian for verification. Some plan types are not eligible for rollover.

You should make a copy of the check and the Incoming Rollover Contribution Application for your records.

Step 3. Mail the information

Mail (1) the Incoming Rollover Contribution Application and (2) the check to:

FIRST CLASS MAIL WITH STAMP:

Fidelity Investments Client Service Operations
P.O. Box 770003 Cincinnati, OH 45277-0065

Overnight Address:

Fidelity Investments
Client Service Operations (KC1F-L)
100 Crosby Parkway Covington, KY 41015

Please include all the information requested. Incomplete forms and the accompanying check will be returned to you and may jeopardize your ability to roll over your distribution.

Once your contribution is accepted into the Plan, you can log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.401k.com to view your rollover contribution and investment election(s). Please allow at least seven business days for processing. If you have any questions about rollover contributions, call 1-800-835-5097. Please be sure you have beneficiary information for the Plan on file.

Acceptable rollover funds

The Plan will accept taxable* money from the following types of plans: 401(a) plans (e.g., 401(k)); 403(a) plans; governmental 457(b) plans; 403(b) plans (e.g., plans of tax-exempt organizations); conduit IRAs (rollover IRAs); non-conduit IRAs (traditional IRAs, Simplified Employee Pension plans (SEP-IRAs) and "SIMPLE" IRA distributions made more than two years from the date you first participated in the SIMPLE IRA; distributions of taxable monies made to you as (1) a Spousal beneficiary from a current or former spouse from these types of plans, or (2) an alternate payee pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO). In addition, the Plan will accept the following money types if indicated below: Roth 401(k), Roth 403(b), or Roth 457(b); After-tax contributions from 401(a) and 403(a) plans.

*Taxable money is defined as pretax contributions (employee and employer), earnings on pretax contributions, and taxable earnings on after-tax contributions from your previous employer's plan.

Please note: Making rollover contributions to the Plan that consist of assets other than qualified 401(a), or 403(a) plan assets, or conduit IRA (rollover IRA) assets, may result in the loss of capital gains or 10-year income-averaging tax treatment associated with lump sum distributions from the Plan. If you may be eligible for this special tax treatment, you should consult your tax adviser and carefully consider the impact of making a rollover contribution to the Plan. Please talk to your tax adviser for additional information and review the special tax notice to determine if you're eligible.

Unacceptable rollover sources

The Plan cannot accept money from the following sources: rollovers from nonspousal beneficiary accounts, payments over a life expectancy or a period of 10 or more years, or Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs). Also unacceptable are Roth IRAs, HSAs and Coverdell Education Savings Accounts (CESAs). In-kind distributions of employer stock are not acceptable; therefore, stock must be sold and the proceeds (including any appreciation realized through the date of distribution) may be rolled over.

Section Three: Investment Elections

I direct Fidelity to invest my rollover contribution into my current investment mix applicable to rollover contributions. If I have not previously made investment elections for the rollover contribution it will be invested based on my elections for elective deferral contributions. If I have not selected an investment mix on my own via NetBenefits® or by telephone, I understand that this rollover contribution will be invested in the Plan's default investment option as directed by my employer.

Section Four: Participant Certification

I authorize the investment election for this rollover and acknowledge that I have received information detailing my available investment options. I acknowledge that my rollover contribution will be invested in accordance with section three of this form.

I certify that this rollover amount is composed ONLY of money from acceptable sources listed under Section Two, and I have completed the information regarding the source of this money to the best of my knowledge. Also, if the distribution check was made payable to me, I understand that this rollover must be received and deposited to my account within 60 days of receipt of the distribution. I understand that, once invested, these monies will be subject to the terms that govern the Plan.

This information provides only a summary of the main features of the VineBrook Homes, LLC 401(k) Plan, and the Plan document will govern in the event of any discrepancy.

A mutual fund expense ratio is the total annual fund or class operating expenses (before waivers or reimbursements) paid by the fund and stated as a percentage of the fund's total net assets. For other types of investments, the figure in the expense ratio field reflects similar information, but may have been calculated differently than for mutual funds. Mutual fund data comes from the fund's prospectus. For non-mutual fund investment options, the information has been provided by the plan sponsor, the investment option's manager, or the trustee. When no ratio is shown for these options, it is because none was available. There may be fees and expenses associated with the investment option. Expense information changes periodically. Please consult NetBenefits.com for updates.

The Plan is intended to be a participant-directed plan as described in Section 404(c) of ERISA, which means that fiduciaries of the Plan are ordinarily relieved of liability for any losses that are the direct and necessary result of investment instructions given by a participant or beneficiary.

Fidelity retail products and services are offered separately from your employer-sponsored retirement plan.
